BT

1. Claims 1-7, 9-12, 14-20 are presented for examination.

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 1-7, 9-12, 14-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Applicant claims: "generating a summary of said urgent mail including information from said attached file". Examiner can not find this teaching anywhere in the specification.

4. Examiner will consider the limitation "generating a summary of said urgent mail including information from said attached file" when applicant points out where it can be found from applicant's original specification. For now, Examiner provides examination without considering the limitation as described below.

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. § 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 2141

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

6. Claims 1-7, 9-12, and 14-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 102(e) as being anticipated by Cloutier et al. (Cloutier) patent no. 6,535,586.

7. As to claim 15, Cloutier teaches the invention as claimed, including a mobile communication terminal (col. 3 line 62 - col. 4 line 14; wireless communication device 170), comprising:

receiving means for receiving a mail-arrival notifying signal together with a summary of an electronic mail to make a notice that said electronic mail arriving at a prescribed mail server is an urgent mail (col. 4 line 61 - col. 5 line 23; col. 5 lines 40-60);

transmitting means for transmitting an acquisition instructing signal to instruct acquisition of said urgent mail, to a prescribed information processing apparatus by radio communications for short distance, based on said mail-arrival notifying signal (col. 6 line 36 - col. 7 line 52).

8. As to claims 16-17, Cloutier teaches said receiving means receives said mail-arrival notifying signal over a public radio circuit network, and said receiving means receives said mail-arrival notifying signal from a prescribed mail-arrival monitoring apparatus which judges an electronic mail arriving said mail server, by radio communications for short distance (col. 2 lines 30-49; col. 3 lines 11-19).

9. As to claim 18, Cloutier teaches notifying means for notifying a user of arrival of said urgent mail, in response to said mail-arrival notifying signal received (col. 3 line 62 - col. 4 line 14).

10. As to claim 19, Cloutier teaches said transmitting means transmits said acquisition instructing signal including a Message-ID of an electronic mail that is judged as an urgent mail, included in said mail-arrival notifying signal (Abstract).

11. As to claim 20, Cloutier teaches said transmitting means transmits said acquisition instructing signal to a prescribed information processing apparatus by radio communications for short distance, in response to an operation button which is operated by a user to instruct transmission of said acquisition instructing signal (col. 2 lines 30-49; col. 6 line 36 - col. 7 line 25).

12. As to claims 1-7, 9-12, 14, and 21-24, limitations of claims 1-7, 9-12, 14, and 21-24 that are similar to limitations of claims 15-20 are being rejected under the same rationale. In additional, Cloutier teaches a mail server apparatus and mail arrival monitoring apparatus (col. 3 line 20 - col. 4 line 14). Moreover, Cloutier inherently teaches email's attachment or attached file.

13. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Le H. Luu whose telephone number is 571-272-3884. The examiner can normally be reached on 7:00am - 4:30pm.
